About the Teachers/Performers

Mark Edwards has been hailed by the Montgomery Advertiser as a player who "transfers to another zone, effortlessly strumming, plucking and picking a variety of classical masterpieces with clarity." He has earned 28 performance prizes in the U.S. and Canada, including the 2009 Montreal International Guitar Competition and the 2008 National Guitar Workshop/National D'Addario Solo Competition. For more, visit www.MarkEdwardsguitar.com.

A versatile musician, Dave DeDionisio is known for his adventurous programming and diverse taste; genre blending and modern repertoire are a distinctive facet of his progressive performance style. He has been a frequent participant in the National Guitar Workshop and semi-finalist in the National Guitar Competition, and is currently pursuing his Master of Music/Pedagogy degree at the Peabody Institute.

Todd Holcomb is a rising force in the current classical guitar landscape. He actively performs in the mid-Atlantic as both a soloist and as a member of The Visione Trio, who were finalists at the 2009 J. C. Arriaga Chamber Music Competition. This fall he will begin an artist diploma at the Schwob School of Music at Columbus State University, where he is the recipient of a graduate assistantship and a full scholarship.

A dedicated new voice in the contemporary music world, ChromaDuo is vigorously developing and presenting some of today's most evocative, lyrical, and exhilarating music. With two classical guitarists, Tracy Anne Smith and Rob MacDonald unveil refreshing and innovative programs of new works by some of the most exciting composers of our time.

they continue their search for pioneering new voices to expand and enrich the repertoire for two guitars. Alongside these creations, their concert programs feature standout works from the late 20th and early 21st centuries.

Participants should bring their instrument, music, and a folding music stand. Please arrive at least 15 minutes before the start of your first session.
